

worn and washed fabrics week end workshops hosted by Kim Porter

June 28 and 29th June 2014

At : The Olney Centre, High Street, Olney, Bucks MK46 4EF

Time 10.00 - 5.00

there are 18 places each day, 49.50 per day, payment due by May 31st if you would like to come on both days the total is £85.00

my guests will make a quilt top approx. 50" x 60" using a worn and washed fabric bundle, using my no waste offset brick design...each quilt will be unique. most will be basted with wadding and backing ready for quilting, by the end of the day. The day suits new or experienced sewers

Supplies:

I will have plenty of bundles for sale at the centre, plus wadding and backings. bundles are £50.00 (special workshop price), wadding £8.00 , backings £22.50

You must bring your machine, thread and small scissors.
if you would like to bring your own backing and or wadding please make sure it is the right size i.e minimum 55" x 70".

Food and drink:

I will supply endless good tea including fruit and herbal, and coffee, with biscuits, cakes and sweets.

N.B in the past I have organised a buffet lunch but have struggled to persuade guests to stop sewing to eat, so to keep costs the same I have decided to ask that you bring your own lunch

Olney is a lovely old market town 7 miles from J14 of the M1, with a variety of independent shops, restaurants and cafes

If you want to enjoy a whole week end away self catering accommodation is available within walking distance of the centre
